

DANA BUCHBUT, MD, MBA

EDUCATION

MIT SLOAN SCHOOL OF MANAGEMENT

Cambridge, MA

Candidate for MBA, June 2016, Entrepreneurship & Innovation Track, Healthcare Certificate

2014-2016

- Awarded Dean's Fellowship in recognition of outstanding personal achievements, GMAT 750 (98th percentile)
- Elected Student Representative for Medical Consumers' Advisory Council at MIT Medical; Fellowship representatives director
- VP of Sponsorship for the Healthcare Club; Active member of the Entrepreneurship & Innovation and Technology clubs

TEL AVIV UNIVERSITY, SACKLER FACULTY OF MEDICINE

Tel Aviv, Israel

B.Med.Sc., Medical Sciences; Doctor of Medicine (MD)

2004-2010

- Received Israeli Society for Clinical Oncology & Radiation Therapy Award for MD thesis research
- Authored paper, based on MD thesis, that was published in the prestigious CANCER periodical
- Recipient of Dean's award for leading public relations efforts to enhance students' understanding of healthcare delivery
- Presented on television and other media outlets on topics ranging from congestion in emergency rooms, to daily life of medical students

EXPERIENCE

DERMMI

Boston, MA

Founder & CEO

2016-Present

BRIGHAM AND WOMEN'S HOSPITAL

Boston, MA

Clinical Informatics & Innovation Fellowship Intern

Summer 2015

- Created a strategic business plan for industry partnerships with the new Clinical Informatics & Innovation Fellowship by conducting market research on partnership offerings, determining options for business development and delivering a presentation
- Led Health Apps research project by selecting the 150 most popular Apps, preparing review questionnaires and assigning them for review by physicians and non-physicians

LEVINSKY CLINIC, MINISTRY OF HEALTH

Tel Aviv, Israel

Medical Doctor, Venereology (STDs)

2013-2014

- Managed a team of 10 staff at largest and most advanced sexually transmitted disease (STD) clinic in Middle East
- Won governmental prize from Israel's President Shimon Peres for spearheading mobile clinic program designed to educate and provide pro bono medical services to sex workers
- Initiated new area of treatment for genital skin lesions; devised execution plan and built practice to 50 patients monthly within a six month period, reducing number of rejected genital dermatology patients by 90%
- Led clinic's information technology infrastructure overhaul project by recruiting volunteer software engineers

HADASSAH UNIVERSITY MEDICAL CENTER

Jerusalem, Israel

Medical Doctor, Department of Dermatology & Venereology (STDs)

2012-2014

- Directed medical staff of 10; surveyed, examined, diagnosed, treated, and monitored up to 50 patients in department
- Completed aesthetic medicine certification (highest score in peer group of 20 doctors)
- Developed departmental procedures and created defined management protocols, reducing case management time by 30%

TEL AVIV SOURASKY MEDICAL CENTER

Tel Aviv, Israel

Medical Doctor Intern, Department of Geriatrics

2011-2012

- Led team of 20 (nurses, orderlies, and interns) through recovery of 80 geriatric patients in Israel's third-largest hospital
- Lectured to physicians 25 journal clubs (lectures about recent articles in professional literature) in dermatology and venereology

ISRAEL DEFENSE FORCES

Tel Aviv, Israel

Assistant to the Chief of Staff; Medical Doctor (reserves), Lieutenant

2002-2004, 2011-2014

- Commanded Information and Public Communications Division (five officers and 30 soldiers)
- Served as advanced trauma life support doctor for one month annually
- Graduated with high distinction from Officers Academy (first of 300 cadets)

COMMUNITY SERVICE

PHYSICIANS FOR HUMAN RIGHTS

Tel Aviv, Israel

Project Manager, Dermatology & Venereology Mobile Clinic

2012-2014

- Led mobile clinic in rural Palestinian villages, treating 80 patients monthly; conducted interview on Public Broadcasting Service (PBS)
- Recruited five volunteer physicians and solicited 10,000 medical product donations from five pharmaceutical companies
- Taught management of dermatological and venereological cases to 15 medical students

ACTIVITIES

- Certified aerobic and cycling instructor; traveled to 20 countries on five continents; Nature photography
- Selected as guest doctor on Israeli documentary TV series "Ichilov" in 2013