Graduated Long Island University and Glen Cove Community Hospital B.S. in Medical Technology, Certified by the American Society of Clinical Pathologists, 1969.

Five years Hospital and Clinical laboratory Medical Technologist experience, including Livingston General Osteopathic, Livingston, NJ, Orange Memorial General Hospital, Orange, NJ and Long Island General Hospital, Long Island, NY. Specialties: Calibration and maintenance of diagnostic test equipment, blood chemistry, urinalysis, hematology, and microbiology test analysis.

During this period I had the opportunity to collaborate with numerous practitioners on pathology examinations, and to review thousands of pathology slides from the hospital's medical archives. I came to understand quickly that although there were many highly dedicated and brilliant physicians and surgeons in the field, FOR THE MOST PART, DRUGS AND SURGERY WERE NOT THE ANSWER TO THE MAJORITY OF HEALTH PROBLEMS; RATHER THAT PREVENTION, NUTRITION, EXERCISE, DETOXIFICATION AND THE CARE OF THE HUMAN FRAME AND STRUCTURE WERE THE FUNDAMENTAL FOUNDATIONS OF HEALTH AND LONGEVITY. It was the beginning of a lifelong quest to find the answers to health, disease prevention, and cure.

Graduate, NYCC with Doctor of Chiropractic degree, Old Westbury, Long Island, 1977. Certified in Manipulation Under Anesthesia and Homeopathic Medicine.
